JOH Names Ken Johnson as Director of Frozen/Dairy Division

January 24, 2012 - Ken Johnson has joined JOH as Director of Frozen/Dairy Division. Ken will be focused on growing and strengthening this critical department and will be reporting to Gerry Castignetti, EVP/Sales Manager.

Ken brings 30 years of industry experience and food sales including 21 years at Hannaford Brothers' where as Vice President he focused on merchandising and marketing across all aisles of the store. Most recently, Ken was Vice President of Sales at Barber Foods, Kettle Cuisine and Decas Cranberry where his responsibilities included sales, sales planning, budgeting and managing customers across multiple channels and across all US markets.

"JOH is very excited to have Ken join our team," said John Saidnawey, JOH President and COO. "Ken brings a wealth of knowledge, professionalism and experience to our Frozen/Dairy Department. Ken's 21 years at Hannaford coupled with his direct manufacturing, sales background, makes him a vital asset to our clients and customers. Ken is passionate about the industry and extremely knowledgeable. We look forward to having him grow our business to new heights in this emerging department.
