Larry Weiss Honored with the 2018 Harry O'Hare Award

January 17, 2019 - Billerica, MA - JOH is honored to present the prestigious 2018 Harry O'Hare Award to Larry Weiss, Space Management Coordinator, JOH Metro NY/NJ division.

The award is presented to the person who most personifies the qualities and values that match those of the life and career of Harry O'Hare. Mr. O'Hare's personal and professional legacies are filled with hard work, integrity, passion, a positive attitude and team spirit.

"Larry is greatly admired and respected by his peers," said John Saidnawey, JOH's Chairman & CEO. "Most of all, they talk about his amazingly positive attitude. His success comes from his professionalism, work ethic, listening skills and execution. Larry exhibits all of the values our founder and award namesake, Mr. Harry O'Hare, established and practiced throughout his life. Thank you for being a JOH'er and bringing all this and more to our company. Congratulations on receiving this well-deserved award!"
