JOH Welcomes Kyle Lewis Collaborative Planning, Forecasting and Replenishment (CPFR) Analyst JOH Non-Foods Division

BILLERICA, Mass., November 2, 2021 – JOH is proud to welcome its newest CPFR Analyst, Kyle Lewis, to the team.

Kyle's experience in supply chain management, specifically his prior role as a CPFR analyst, has given him the necessary knowledge to work together with both clients and customers to effectively establish forecasting and inventory goals.

"We are excited to have Kyle join our team," said Kevin Tassinari, EVP, Non-Foods. "Now more than ever, we need supply chain experts and analysts like him on our side to help us bring our clients and customers to higher levels of success. Welcome, Kyle!"

Outside of the office, Kyle spends much of his time with his wife Nicole. Together, they operate a small candle company and enjoy traveling and promoting small businesses within their community. Kyle also builds birdhouses out of reclaimed barn boards, a family tradition passed down by his grandfather. Kyle and Nicole are currently awaiting the arrival of their first child. He may be reached at klewis@johare.com.
